

Quentin Bryce Creative residency, Via Mezzavilla 37, Conzano, Province of Alessandria, Italy

Duration of residency

Minimum two weeks, maximum three months (length of the residencies are negotiable due to availability each year)

Accommodation

Accommodation for one to two person.

Facilities

All Facilities are newly renovated. One bedroom with clothing system, kitchen/dining, large bathroom, Laundry and storage room, air conditioning, if required Vodafone modem available (5 G plan to be connected at Vodafone store, via Roma, Casale Monferrato)

Concept

The Studio apartment is intended to generate and inspire interdisciplinary creative explorations and collaborations through the various disciplines-literature, visual arts, dance, thought, geography, ethnography, social sciences and anthropology. Referred to as a creative in-residence program it is intended to be diverse and be offered to all individuals involved in the arts, literature and all areas that make and create more humane society.

The residency is intended to use the time to write a memory, a heritage story or research their family migratory history, any form of creative research and development is encouraged. Become part of the Migration as Art Museum alumni.

Applicant information

The selection process is focused on the project-proposal to be developed during the residency.

Cost

2000 euros per month

All applicants email the following:

CV

Short description of intent (250 max)

Preferred dates of attendance.

Applicants for this residency please email the following:

Short description of intent

Preferred dates of attendance

Directors: Stephen Copland and Meredith Brice migrationasartmuseum@gmail.com

The Honourable Dame Quentin Bryce AD CVO

Dame Quentin Bryce was born in Brisbane in 1942 and spent her early years in Ilfracombe, a small town in Central Western Queensland. In 1965, she graduated with the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws from The University of Queensland and, in the same year, was admitted to the Queensland Bar. She has since enjoyed a rich and distinguished career as an academic, lawyer, community and human rights advocate, senior public officer, university college principal, and vice-regal representative in Queensland. On 5 September 2008 Quentin Bryce was sworn in as Australia's twenty-fifth Governor-General. As the first woman to take up the office, she remains a pioneer in contemporary Australian society and on the 5th June 2011 Dame Quentin Bryce visited Conzano to open the famous relationship with Australia from the large waves of migration.